

PARENTAL RIGHTS

Family is important.

So why not look to countries that are leading the way in balancing family responsibilities with work and studies?

That's what the APTS-FIQ alliance did, and is proposing measures to ensure that economic equality between men and women becomes a reality in daily life, and that women – who form 85% of our members – don't pay a price when they become mothers.

The aim of the FIQ-APTS alliance's proposals is to:

- offer parents greater flexibility in taking leaves
- enhance pregnancy-related leaves.
